

Hopi Prophecy_ Entering the Fifth World
The unfolding of the End Times,
& the Passing of the Fourth World:
November 12, 2005 – Robert Ghost Wolf

I have been asked a lot lately about the Hopi Prophecies. Seeing what is out there in the public arena, I can see why there are still so many questions I realize of late that there are many people who are not familiar with this body of prophetic work, everything seems to be a rehash of a rehash, of some one else's translation or impression of what the prophecies are suppose to be about. I wish therefore to share a little in my understanding of the prophecies of the End Times from many years of personal association and interaction with the Hopi Sinom, the traditional Priest hood that has its genetic roots going back as far as 12, 000 years ago.

In the recluse environment of my mountain cabin in the East Mountains between Albuquerque and Santa Fe, New Mexico, one can allow the memories of days where life was like a river that brought to me many experiences, many gifts and many meetings with remarkable people. In my minds eye, I can still see the eyes of those elders and through them I am able to see the world they experienced. I can hear them speak and as their stories become alive; I see the West as it was long ago, before the blood, and murders and violence of the settlers from the east, the ones our history books might call heroes.

However in reality the History of the Old West was one entrenched in blood, murder, pillaging, and debauchery. Stories of hardship and people die from lack of resources, and poor health, starvation and disease. Perhaps these so called heroes are the ones the ancestors of the Hopi might have called the madmen.

The 'Washie-tchu' meanings being two fold. 1: the Fat Eaters; those that live off of the labors of others and give nothing back. 2: the soul-less ones, Those who do not remember their origins, who do not realize that we are all one, born of the same Mother Earth, and Father Sun and we all being of that family of man, have common root origins.

I can still see those elders' faces and the endless depth of their eyes. Eyes that had experienced a world where everything held a purpose, a world that is today lost to contemporary realization. A simpler world where life although filled with drama was pristine in nature, as it was for thousands of years. Their eyes tell the story of a lost America...

Near the end of the 14th century the dream that the Hopi and other Indigenous Peoples of the Americas had come to know, received a shock wave of catastrophic proportions. The Matrix of their reality would never recover from the experience, which would change the nature of life upon the Turtle Island forever more. The Native Peoples experienced the invading forces of the Spanish as the marauding conquistadores the southern portions of North America, Old Mexico, Central and

South America. These people would shortly be followed by many more “Pale Skinned~Europeans” the French, the English, Dutch as a flood of strangers came searching for new beginnings, and fortune.

Understand that the Native People were in many ways quite familiar interacting with, peoples from across both oceans for they had been making their sojourns here for as far back as memory could go. The Celts or Nordic peoples had been coming here for centuries, likewise the Phoenicians, Tibetans, Chinese; the Olmec and Carthaginians of North Africa, the Egyptians and Romans were all travelers here.

Over the centuries peoples have come to the Americas and commingled with the peoples of the Turtle which is why so many indigenous people here are a blend of genetic soup.

As testimony to the reality of these facts, are in the remnants of untold numbers of artifacts across this land to these experiences are being uncovered by contemporary Archeologist and Anthropologists. Another forensic reality is in the studying of their surviving writings, which they left behind on metal plates, rock walls, and scrolls. Language does not have breaks, and can be read almost like DNA.

These truths are being revealed from as far south as Argentina in South America North to Alaska and East to the Hudson Bay regions. Where people lived they left on their path a trail of evidence of the multi cultural influences that formed the mostly unrealized cultural destiny of this hemisphere and its peoples, composed of peoples who have today past into the realms of legend.

In the later part of the 16th Century the appearance of the Western Europeans, from the Eastern shores of the Atlantic Ocean began in larger and larger numbers. The ancestors of the Native Peoples of this land they called the Turtle Island would come to witness the literal annihilation of a way of life that evolved over tens of thousands of years; Their reality would almost completely vanish within a span of little more than three generations.

There are many prophecies by many peoples that weave an interesting tapestry of historical fact, and there are even more pieces of the puzzle that have either been lost to the rages of times, and hidden away, for rightful fear of them being totally destroyed by the invaders, who brought with them the age of self destruction and madness, a time of pestilence and destruction of nature in less than 200 years.

In less than 200 years we have stood witness to the destruction in nature of what has stood for thousands of years, and perhaps took millions of years in the process of creation; vanish from the dream in less than 200 years. It is a phenomenon the Native Peoples have witness and endured on a first hand basis, intimately and personally.

Why the big deal about the Hopi prophecies you may ask. There were many other Tribes of Indians as you have stated. They must have had their prophecies and stories of future times. Why is there this continued quest to understand all that the Hopi might have to say about future events?

Perhaps it is because here on North America the Hopi remain the oldest continuing civilization, and cultural group of peoples upon the land. There are others in South America; the Maya who are even older than the Hopi have continued their understandings, their knowledge is still very much alive as well. And it is a belief by some that it is from the Maya sprang forth the Hopi themselves.

The ancient civilization of the Inca has mainly been destroyed, to the point of near extinction, or at least the total eradication of communal memory from their consciousness has waned. This is what happens to a people when their Tonal has been destroyed, and their dignity stripped from them. There are of course the Kogi people of Columbia. Who are today a remote mountain people living until recently in the 20th Century, in isolation from the modern world. The Kogi are at last as old as the Hopi.

(The word “nagual” belongs to the Nahuatl language and it is the counterpart of “tonal.” Nahuatl was the language spoken by the people of Teotihuacán, the Toltec’s, Aztecs and many other indigenous groups of the past and present in Mexico and even some regions of Central America. Together, tonal (the condition) and nagual ( Shamanic awareness) are the two sides of the duality always present in the perceiving of this reality experience. That which makes up the tonal includes the farthest extreme of the known reality. Beyond the tonal is Tokpela, the great void.)

The Kogi did not always live in the isolation of their mountain hideaway; they retreated there when they witnessed the unfathomable cruelty of the conquistadores and the conquest of the Great South American cultures by the Spanish. Their seclusion is by choice, and as a result this ancient culture survived the age of conquest.

The Kogi still have their cellular memory, but access to this area of consciousness, has been reduced for the most part to visionary experience, and shamanic knowledge.

Up here in the North, yes, we do have the Cherokee and they are wise and ancient people. But the Cherokee are a relatively recent cultural addition to this hemisphere, having arrived here perhaps a few thousand years ago.

The Cherokee have retained the cellular memory of their origins going back to the land of Cannon; and of the “Civilized Tribes” perhaps the Cherokee most successfully have integrated with our modern society itself it would seem, has evolved by natural means into a society which as well is a “cosmic soup. ” of combined hybrid cultures.

It should be noted by the reader that, 21st Century America is a composite of almost every society and cultural peoples that walks upon the Earth. With better than half the population born of mixed blood,

Here in the land of the Turtle, the Hopi themselves being a composite race of ancient peoples, remain the oldest survivors with their cellular memory intact. And for that, they have earned their position as keepers of the ancient wisdom. They have kept alive, a knowledge that has survived for over 10,000 years.

The Hopi have survived as civilized humans according to their legends through three dramatic ages upon Mother Terra. What comprises “civilization is: a communicable language written and oral, social order, custom, common spiritual belief, science and technology, and a core understanding of ancestral origin. Where other cultures have past into legend and myth; like the age of Atlantis, Eldorado, and Lemuria the Hopi remain with us to the end of time.

Little remains of mankind’s existence before the Third Age; too little to articulate the story with much clarity, all that archeologists and anthropologists can calculate is there was something, there was a First People, if you will, “a Father Race” and it seems every known culture has some reference of them on a global level.

The knowledge of this father race is now left to the realms of Shamanic Journey, and practice. In contemporary literature and writings we call these early worlds the time of Middle Earth.

The Final Days

Before the Middle Earth there was only thought, this time is known as Tokpela. Tokpela was the endless, primordial space before creation, we call it the Great Void where all things are potential and yet no thing material exists, it is simply explained as “Source.” It is from Tokpela that we draw upon our ability to manifest reality. To take the thought and make it manifest in the physical plane. It is from the Tokpela that Taiowa created the reality that we experience.

The Hopi tell us that physically we are presently entering the fifth world, the fifth expression, a new world, a new paradigm, where the Earth will experience new life forms. A fifth expression where we/humanity will come to know our spiritual self, and be as one with it, mankind will walk upright and be made whole.

The ones that do not choose to make the transition, will experience multiple reality experiences, with the densest of minds simply return to zero point by their own choosing. For the deepest emotions are the expression of the inner self, and it is this self that dictates the experience all the other levels of our physical being comes to know.

The Hopi say they know it is the fifth world we are entering, because we have already experienced three others before this is the fourth world. This fourth world, the reality we have been experiencing, is called Tuwaqachi. (4th World_ here we experience the temporal world, the artificial cycles of life and death upon the wheel of life, and the illusion of Time. In other words “Temporal existence, or Mortality. Limited life experience.)

Each of these other worlds saw their demise after the appearance of a Star Traveler, who the Hopi know as the “Blue Star Kachina.” They call this Kachina Saquasohuh . He always precedes the coming of his little brothers (the Twins) who are sometimes known as the “ Twin Sun” Kachinas, and they represent the duality of life in this plane of experience. Their names are Poqanghoya and Palongawhoya.

To the Hopi Taiowa is the creator. Taiowa created all the gods, all the planets and the heavens and all beings in the heavens. These he created from out of Tokpela, the primordial source. Taiowa made Sotuknang Perhaps those of Judeo-Christian mythology, would call Sotuknang “ Gabriel, the deliverer of judgment, the Destroyer. There are others two who would refer to Sotuknang as being a metaphor for Nibiru, the Twelfth Planet. Taiowa decreed Sotuknang to make the universe by his design and subject to his law.

The first world was called Topela and had land, water and air, all swirling together in a luminous mist; As well Taiowa using a piece of his own Luciferous embodiment (light body) created Koyangwuti (spider woman), who who in turn created through her union with Taiowa, her children the twins, Poqanghoya and Palongawhoya . The Twins are guardians of the balance of creation, or the Great Law. Without this law life would quickly return to chaos, and inevitably self destruction.

One twin Poqanghoya sits at the North Pole the other Palongawhoya. at the South pole. Each sits upon the head of a great serpent. This serpent guards them and serves them, and it is said by the old priests once in awhile the Twins let the Serpents loose to cause floods, and earthquakes, to remind the wayward children of their constant presence.

Later Koyangwuti would dream the dream of humans and in this manner two leggeds, man-kind, meaning like man, man-child were made manifest. The term “man” having much broader consequence than presently perceived by common science and religion. This gift of Spider Mother, is why we also have the ability to Dream.

It is said that these “Twins” hold the powers of balance and harmony for the Earth in accordance with the laws of creation. These Twins, have the power to shake the Earth itself (Magnetic manipulation of the poles) as in earthquakes. The Serpents upon whose backs the ride can summon the fire from deep within the Earth (Volcanoes) which flows like a red serpent. They also are the keepers of the doors to the inner Earth, the Hollow Earth, This is the home to ancient races that once were upon the surface of the Earth ; these beings remain in their original forms, and many come from beyond the Sun.

Make no mistake these Twins are not cherubic essences from your Victorian Valentine Cards, they are warrior beings from another expression of reality, a very ancient expression. This world the one we can touch with our hands is not eh only reality we experience. It is just that it is the only one most can remember.

These Twins it seems always follow the appearance of Saquasohuh the Blue Star Kachina who appears first in the heavens as a bright star with two tales one White and the other Blue. This Bright Star is mobile and moves throughout the heavens. The Hopi believe that Hall-Bop that was seen in the heavens by our telescopes was Saquasohuh. NASA images, as well as many others taken by professional photographers of Hale-Bopp clearly shows two tales One White the Other Blue as it flew across our heavens in 1997.

The Twins also made the rivers, oceans and mountains. Koyangwuti then made all organisms, but most of the man-child beings, the humans, did not obey the Great Law, so Sotuknang seeing the evil these wayward children, had brought upon Earht, became angry, and killed them all in a great flood.

The Hopi and others who were saved from this Great Flood were brought into the “Hollow Earth” by those who th Hopi call the Ant People. Here they would remain for some 480 years while a new matrix, or life expression was formed on the surface. When they emerged again through the hole in the ground (Kiva) they made a sacred covenant with Taiowa never to turn away from him or the Great Law.

It is then said that Taiowa made a set of sacred stone tablets, called Tiponi, into which he breathed his teachings, prophecies, and warnings. Before Taiowa himself returned again to Tokpela. He gave these tablets to Sotuknang who then placed them before the leaders of the four different racial groups who emerged to the surface world, along with woven cloth of four colors, and from a pile of sacred seeds he instructed each of them to draw four different seeds.

There were four different colors of cloth, and four sizes of the sacred seeds of life which they would carry, plant and work the fields with for the sustenance of their people.

From this handful of four sacred seeds Tiaowa and Sotuknang would know their intent, they would dictate the outcome of their own destinies, and they would walk the shadows of their own footsteps into the future.

From these seeds each group choose that which would be their food in this world. The Hopi waited until last and picked the smallest ear of corn, and the tiniest of seeds. Noticing this Taiowa who was still present said:

"It is well done. You have obtained the real corn, and the real seeds of life, for all the others are imitations in which are hidden seeds of different plants. You have shown me your true character and inner nature; for this reason I will place in your hands these sacred stone tablets, the Tiponi, symbols of power and authority over all land and life for you to guard, protect, and hold in trust for me until I shall return to you in a later day, for remember always I am the First and I am the Last."

The Wheel Returns

The time of the reappearance of Saquasohuh was foretold by an ancient traditional Hopi song. This song was sung during the Wuwuchim ceremony back in 1914 just before World War I, and again a Sinom Priest sang it in 1940 just before World War II, describing the coming disunity, violence, corruption, debauchery, the holocaust and hatred contaminating the world.

Now the wheel seems to be turning faster and faster. Now during the ceremony the events which transpire reflect the very same evils that seem to be consuming the world. Today the Hopi seem to be becoming fewer and fewer in numbers, they are literally vanishing from this dream. This same song we are told was sung in 1961 during the Wuwuchim ceremony by Grandfather Titus.

Titus told the People in Hotevilla that when Saquasohuh the Blue Star Katchina returns and walks amongst us, he will quickly become disgusted with the corruption of the adults so he will lift his mask and reveal his presence only to the children.

The Hopi know that the time is very close now. Saquasohuh has made his appearance in the heavens. It is said by some that Sosquasohuh has been seen dancing in the plaza by some of the children. He has whispered words into their ears and now the Hopi are preparing for the Day of Purification, as they say, "Like the Heat of the Sun you can feel it on your back... it's that close now everyone can feel the sense of urgency."

Saquasohuh always leads the way for the coming (return) of Taiowa. Taiowa is he who gave humanity their Original teachings. He was once among us and was a great and wise teacher of humanity. Perhaps Taiowa appears in human form as Pahana, the Pale Prophet, the Peacemaker. Who appeared to humanity as he walked the Earth, as Pahana in his human form.

From his human experience he developed a great love for us. His love for us allows the opportunity for changing our final destiny, always he stands between us and Masau the Red God of war, the Earth, and the underworld. The Hindu call Masau the King of the Earth. Masau is the embodiment of judgment, Masau is always preceded by his cousin the Purifier, Sotuknang , sometimes called the Destroyer.

Masau is sometimes called the Red Star kachina, and when he appears in the heavens he is not mobile, and will be found in one place observing the Earth, and all who live upon her. It is Masau who will deliver the Purification when he comes again. Saquasohuh is his messenger.

We are very close to the Final Days; they can happen at any time now.. The Hopi say it will come when the Saquasohuh (Blue Star) Kachina is seen dancing in the plaza and he removes his mask in front of the children, who will recognize him.

The time came for Taiowa to return to the Tokpela, his home in the heavens, before he left Taiowa told the People they would not see him again until after the Day of Purification. That in the years ahead they would come to suffer great tribulations, and almost forget their way of life. Then when all seemed hopeless they would see the star that marked the return of Saquashohuh in the heavens and they would know then that the Day of Purification was very near.

Taiowa told the people that when the Purifier returns in this fourth age, Saquasohuh will arrive first to announce the changing of the age. Saquasohuh will commune with the Twins to see if we have followed the original teachings and are living according to the Great Law. If we have held the Original Teaching, in our hearts (The place of True Christos), Saquasohuh will instruct us and lead us to safe haven from the waves of the Purification of humanity's soul core and the reconstruction of the dream.

If we are not ready, if we have become corrupt, if the world is still dominated by evil and corruption then Sotuknang will be sent to render the final warnings and we will come to know four great shakings of the Earth. On the Day of Purification, all those who have hardened hearts will be swept up by Massah and taken to a place deep in the blackness of the universe.

These warnings would be delivered by Sotuknang the Purifier, as he grabbed the Earth like a giant Eagle holds a fish in its talons. Each time Sotuknang shakes the Earth we will have the ability to change our ways, to alter the outcome of our fate, to become faithful to the original teachings, and lead good and reasonable lives. Each time the Earth is shaken we will have the ability to change the outcome of our destiny but only for a short period. Each time our consciousness will become more fixed, and our outcome will be determined by our intent.

As the Day of Purification draws closer the world will seem to be growing more, and more violent, and humanity more depraved; each day we would begin to see the gradual breaking down of Natures systems that have sustained life for millions of years.

Again the People had the promise of Taiowa we would receive warnings or signs that the End Times were coming closer. We would be given these signs so we could prepare for the coming of the Purifier. For on that day, the Laws of Creator himself who would appear and the hole of the universe would come into compliance. On that Day, there would be no way to avoid things, our Destiny would be immutable. Then in the heavens as they have been seen before, we would see the return of the Two horned priests would appear and they would bring their judgment upon the Earth and all living things, the results of which would be abrupt and final.

Authors note: Please understand that in sharing these stories with the Elders they came over several years. The Elders each hold portions of the tale, and it is delivered thus in a fragmented format. Take them in holistically and not linearly. When the Hopi first received these prophecies was now nearly ten thousand years ago. I know there are many people out there trying to hitch a ride on the magic carpet, some of you may have heard of these, told in some manner. This is the way we shared the stories around my camp fires and sometimes theirs up in Hopi Land.

Once these stories were inscribed in the living stone; there were at least three locations I could have sent you to witness for yourself. However in recent years combinations of rock hunters and artifact pirates have destroyed many of these sacred sites. So documented history from our ancestors, once again has been stolen from the people by a bunch of low life's.

Once long ago, before there were Wal~Marts Lawyers, and Dentists.

The Warnings:

The First Sign: There will come a race of the pale-skinned men, One day we will turn and they will just appear as if out of nowhere. These pale ones would look very much like Pahana, but their ways will be very different from Pahana. They will not know the sacredness of life like Pahana. They will not know the sacred handshake, and have nothing to givr, they will be takers and manipulators. These men will take the land away from all they meet, they will tell us the own the Earth itself, even the Waters. No one can own the Earth, but they will think that they do. These men will strike down all who would oppose them with strange thunder sticks.

The Second Sign: Our lands will see the coming of spinning wheels filled with many voices. Our grandfather's fist thought that this was the pale ones bringing their families in wagons across the prairies. This was before they knew about satellites, and HAARP Transmitters which transmit many voices to people all over the world.

The Third Sign: A strange beast much like a buffalo but with great long horns, will follow these 'Bahana' and they will overrun the land in large numbers, they will drive out all the buffalo, leave them to rot on the praries. even the geese which can fill the sky will disappear in these days. The prairies will become unlivable and we will not be able to drink from the waters, and the plants that grow will make us sick.

The Fourth Sign: In the times just before the final shakings we will also many strange snakes of iron across the land. Upon the backs of these snakes of iron the pale ones will come to change all thngs that the creator has made, the Pale ones will come as the locust and devour the land, even the standing people will vanish as these termite men eat all that is in their path. These snakes of Iron will go through the mountains, and even be found in the Grandmother country. Upon the backs of these iron snakes huge fire breathing beasts shall travel. The trails of the Iron snakes will bring death everywhere they are found.

The Fifth Sign: You will see the land covered by giant cobwebs. These webs will ine day cover the entire Earth. They and like the web of the spider shall bring the spiders poison to all they touch and deat h will be everywhere.

The Sixth sign: In the days before the end, you will see upon this land many rivers of stone. These Rivers make pictures in the sun, sometimes you will see what seems to be lakes, where there are none. These rivers have the ability to shine in the night, as if they have eaten a piece of the Moon herself. Upon these rivers we will see even more of the black bugs. These black bugs will leave behind them a trail of black death. These things will let you know that the Earth is about to be shaken by the Twins. When the shaking happens we will see many of these black bugs in the skies above us. Behind these black bugs would be trails of filth that will begin to become more and more as the number of these black bugs grow.

They will rain death on the land. For they would be like the locusts, appearing in swarms, and these swarms with their filth will cause many new diseases, killing mall living things upon the Earth.

Authors note: It was in 1908 the Model T Ford was mass-produced for the first time.

The prophecy speaks of a house of mica that would be built, that would touch the clouds. In 1912 Woodrow Wilson spoke of a league of Nations, where all peoples of the Earth would gather. Then in 1914 WWI began. And th hopi knew it was the First shaking of the World When the War ended the League of Nations was formed. It was supposed to represent all the nations of this world, but there were no Native American nations, so the elders knew it would not last as it was built upon a lie. Ultimately it was a complete failure. Many nations broke away from this organization, the United States never actually became a part of it.

So the elders knew the First Shaking of the Earth was to come soon; then when the WWI happened the airplane came into wide usage for the first time. That was the bug moving in the sky that our ancestors had told us about.

The Seventh Sign: You will hear of the sea turning black in some places, and sometimes Red like blood; many living things from the sea will be seen coming up on the shore to get away from the sickness, many more will be witnessed dying because of these things. The Great Oceans themselves will then begin to die.

The Eighth Sign: You will see many youth, who wear their hair long like our Hopi people do. Many will walk away from the death that will be behind them; they come and join the human beings, to learn their ways and wisdom. For it will be as if the whole world is dying from strange sickness, and plagues.

The Ninth: You will hear of a dwelling-place in the heavens, this will be known as the Eagles house in the Sky, far above the earth. This house shall fall with a great crash, for the Twins will not allow these pale ones to own the sky, which is only for the cloud person for that is their home.

The Tenth Sign: Will be when Saquasohuh the Blue star kachina returns with the Twins. All people will witness this event in the heavens, and the Hopi will know that the twin flames one blue, and one white means the End Times are very near now. Very soon after this, the ceremonies of the Hopi people will cease, and what is left of the Hopi will begin to prepare for the End Times, which will come swiftly now, like the night hawk the flies at sunset. For the dream of life itself will be fading from our eyes. Many will choose to leave at this time, some in whole groups, others will cease to have children, for they will not be able to bear what is coming. .

The Eleventh Sign: The Twins will bring the balance back to the Earth. They care not about us, only the Great Law of Tiowa. In many places they will let loose the Serpents, who will cause earthquakes and the oceans to rise and flood many areas. In some places even the rivers will flow backwards. In other places the rivers will cease to flow.

The Twelfth Sign: Our Sun will become sick, and fall out of balance. It will become harmful to be out in its light. We will have to again return to living within the Earth. Things will not grow in its light rather they will die, and sores will appear on the animals and two leggeds from its light. Tiowa will cause a new sun to be born from within our dying Sun, and the Sun will shift in its position in the sky. First we will see fire balls fall to earth, and there will be great devastation. Then we will see the Sun surrounded by a mist. This will happen four times, before it fades forever. Then everything will change, as the other Sun reappears in our skies to help the new Sun grow as a parent helps its child.

The Thirteenth Sign:: Our Moon will begin to behave in strange ways. It will seem to bounce in the heavens appearing in one place and the another. The waters of the great oceans will begin to act strangely, as will the two leggeds and the animals. We will know much sorrow in these days, there will be much violence, even in the animals, who will turn on us, even the rabbits, and madness will be everywhere. This Is when what is left of the Hopi And the Children will begin to renew their ceremonies in hidden kivas, for outside the Kiva there will be terrible things occurring.

The Fourteenth Sign: There will be “A Great Dying” upon the land in those days. there shall be many who die from strange diseases, almost all human beings will suffer from strange plagues that will consume people from within. There will be water everywhere, and the rains will come bringing floods, and storms that seem like hey will never end; but there will be no water to drink or food to eat. The great caverns where the Pale ones have built their dwellings that appear as stone mountains will be consumed in fires brought on by the Twins who will shake the old ones, and they will begin to pour out their rivers of fire. It will appear as if the whole world were being consumed by that fire. But like the birds, and the butterflies, and deer, some will find shelter and survive. In the mountains Pahana will sing a new song, a song that the children will know, as many voices become one, and the New Earth is born.

OTHER REFERENCE:

There are other visions of these coming end times and the tribulations humanity will endure. Not all of them fit into a linear pattern. Non the less they are often spoken about in the circles of the elders, and are important in the scheme of things.

Hopi Prophecy speaks of twin Kachinas – that will begin to fight between themselves over the destruction caused by the serpents. They will fight so furiously that it will seem like fire in the sky, and they will consume their anger in this manner, as they merge into one essence.

This could mean. Twin - Merging of Self; or the end of duality. It could also be a metaphor for the Twin Pyramids the tetrahedron - DNA – or the creation of the Christos, by the fire of human emotion consuming itself in duality and the ending of polarization. The true meaning will make itself known in our hearts.

The world shall rock to and fro. The pale ones the ‘ Bahanna’ will battle people in other lands - those who possessed the first light of wisdom. The Children of Baal, the Chinese, and the Children of the Bear, There will be many columns of smoke and fire such as the white man has made in the deserts not far from here. Those who stay and live in the ancient places of the Hopi shall be safe. Then when the chaos quiets down, there will be much to rebuild. And soon, very soon afterward, from the heavens Pahana will be seen returning, riding upon a great star. The light from which will be many times brighter than our sun. He shall bring with him the dawning of the Fifth World.

Once again he shall plant the seeds of his wisdom in our hearts. Even now we can see in our children, that the seeds are being planted as the time of his returning draws near. It is all about polarization, and making choices. For the Evil ones shall only become more evil, until they consume themselves. And the pure ones will also become more powerful, just as the spring which is gentle moves the winter and turns the cold wind to summer. There is much within in us that lies sleeping.

The Hopi watched as in 1945 the United Nations was formed, and they built the main building for this in New York, a tall building of glass, that reflected the sky like mica. As tall as a mountain and many times the top of this building is in the clouds. Again the Native American Nations were not represented, So the Elders knew that this too would fail and become corrupt because it was built upon lies. The hoop would remain broken.

The ceasing of traditional Hopi ceremonialism will come when Saquasohuh the Blue Star kachina appears and removes his mask during a dance in the plaza before uninitiated children (the general public?). For a while there will be no more ceremonies, no more displays of Spiritual faith, as the hearts of the Hopi grow dark. Then places in the places of the Hopi will be seen to rejuvenate, and slowly with acts of faith and the return of ceremonies, through the children it will be known that a new cycle of Spiritual awakening has returned to the Hopi and their way of life/

The Traditional Hopi know beyond a doubt that Saquasohuh will make the prophesized appearance. Many of the traditional Hopi say it has already occurred, and that is why the old ceremonies are fading, and there is little power in the dances. And the corruption has crept into the heart of Hopi land has the elders foretold so long ago.

The Hopi and others who were saved from the Great Flood made a sacred covenant with Tiowa never to turn away from him. He made a set of sacred stone tablets, the Tiponi, into which he breathed his teachings, prophecies, and warnings. Before the Tiowa hid himself again, he placed before the leaders of the four different racial groups four different colors and sizes of corn; each was to choose which would be their food in this world. Tiowa will return with our ancestors from beyond the Sun, They will appear coming from the west, and the heavens will be filled with many colored lights upon this returning, which will occur slowly over many years. Like the Pale ones who at first were weak and few in numbers, then they grew to overshadow the land itself.

When our ancestors begin their return journey, we will see the Dawning of the Fifth World within that generation.. The old ones also said, . “ If they come from the East, the destruction will lesson, and the terrible times will be shortened. However if they appear from the West then the destruction will be great, and they will show no mercy for the ungrateful.”

It is said that after many years the elder brother might change the color of his skin, but his hair will remain black. He will have the ability to write, and he will be the only person able to read the Tiponi. When he returns through the children, he will find his younger brother’s heart. He will show him where the lost Tiponi of the younger brother was placed for safe keeping.

Then the Tiponi of the elder brother, and the younger brother, will be placed side by side to show all the world that they are true brothers. Then a great purification will take place, for the elder brother will help the younger brother to obtain true justice for all their brothers and the great awakening will begin, as all the tribes gather for the home coming of Pahana.

The transformed elder brother, the True Younger Brother, will wear a red cloak or a red cap, and a red cloak. He will teach no religion but his own, and will bring with him the Tiponi tablet. For this work he will be persecuted by others, but he will endure, and the power of his teachings will grow in the hearts of the people.

There will be a false one who pretends to be the Younger brother, and for a time many will follow the ways of this one. He will become all-powerful; none will be able to stand against him. He will come swiftly, and in one day gain control of this entire world and all its’ people. These will be hard times for those who remain of one heart, with one intent. After a time his true intent and his two hearted nature will become known, that which was given to him will be taken away, he will wither into nothingness, a pale shadow will be all that remains.

It is said,. In the wilderness the true younger brother will have been gathering his power, and making strong his connections to the Creator: for though him the power of Taiowa himself will flow. He will claim no powers of his own, and in that knowing he will command the forces of nature. For his rule will be by the power of his heart, not his mind. He will give this knowing to all who seek it with most pure mind, and the True Emergence of the Fifth World will have begun.

The True Younger Brother will bring with him two great, intelligent and powerful helpers, one of whom will have a sign of a swastika (a masculine symbol of purity), and the sign of the new sun. The second great helper will have the sign of a Celtic cross with red lines (representing the serpentine power of the womans life blood) between the arms of the cross.

The True Younger Brother and his helpers will show the people of earth a great new life plan that will lead to everlasting life. The earth will become new and beautiful again, with an abundance of life and food. Those who are saved will share everything equally. All races will intermarry and speak one tongue and be a family. After a time we will again walk with our brothers from the Stars, and rebuild this Earth: but not until the Purifier has left his mark upon the universe. No stone will be unturned. The shadow of Sultuknang will fall upon the Earth, and Sultknang will see that there remain those of one heart, those who remember the original teachings. He will see that his work is done; and as the black shadow of Purification sweeps across the land Sultuknang will return to his place in the heavens, keeping the Great Law of Tiowa sacred.
